

SPECTRUM ON STAGE! HEROES LIKE ME!

March 1-April 15

Tuesday/Thursdays 4:15pm-
5:30pm

Ages 8+

Performance:

April 15 @ 6:30pm

AnyTown, USA, needs a hero! When called upon by the townspeople, the Super Heroes are eager to help. From litter to bullying to technology addiction, the Super Heroes take pride in their work of snuffing out the bad and replacing it with the good.

Using stories from real life participants with autism and other disabilities, this new musical is adaptable and great for neurodiverse actors 8&up. Heroes Like Me lets you tell the story of your town and open your eyes, your hearts and maybe unlock your own super powers!

Register now at:

www.academyofchildrenstheatre.org

AnyTown, USA, needs a hero! When called upon by the townspeople, the Super Heroes are eager to help. From litter to bullying to technology addiction, the Super Heroes take pride in their work of snuffing out the bad and replacing it with the good.

Using stories from real life participants with autism and other disabilities, this new musical is adaptable and great for neurodiverse actors 8&up. Heroes Like Me lets you tell the story of your town and open your eyes, your hearts and maybe unlock your own super powers!

Register now at:

www.academyofchildrenstheatre.org

Spectrum on Stage is ACT's drama program for neurodiverse students on the spectrum. This year's show is the musical "Heroes Like Me":

"AnyTown, USA, needs a hero! When called upon by the townspeople, the Super Heroes are eager to help. From litter to bullying to technology addiction, the Super Heroes take pride in their work of snuffing out the bad and replacing it with the good.

Using stories from real life participants with autism and other disabilities, this new musical is adaptable and great for neurodiverse actors 8&up. Heroes Like Me lets you tell the story of your town and open your eyes, your hearts and maybe unlock your own super powers!"

Register now at:

www.academyofchildrenstheatre.org

Spectrum on Stage is ACT's drama program for neurodiverse students on the spectrum. This year's show is the musical "Heroes Like Me":

"AnyTown, USA, needs a hero! When called upon by the townspeople, the Super Heroes are eager to help. From litter to bullying to technology addiction, the Super Heroes take pride in their work of snuffing out the bad and replacing it with the good.

Using stories from real life participants with autism and other disabilities, this new musical is adaptable and great for neurodiverse actors 8&up. Heroes Like Me lets you tell the story of your town and open your eyes, your hearts and maybe unlock your own super powers!"

Register now at:

www.academyofchildrenstheatre.org